MY FIRST THREE GENERATIONS

Macy (Maysey) Family

The Maysey family is said to have come from Ireland to America. The name is found in the southern part, the progenitors having come from England. According to tradition, there was a Claiborn Macy in the early history of the family. The first known record is the gift by deed of 150 acres in Prince William County, Va., by William Spiller to his "loving granddaughter Mary" and her husband, John Maysey, in 1748. They resided in Truro Parish of Fairfax Co., Va. This tract was later ordered sold in the will of Philip Mason in 1779. He had been married to the widow of John Maysey and thereby acquired title to it. The money realized in the sale was to be paid one-third to his widow, Lettice, and two-thirds to Robert Masey, her son. He signed the deed as Robert Maysey.

The will of John Maysey, made 10 June 1760, Fairfax Co., Va., mentions his wife, Lettice, and children: Mary, Robert, Ann and Charles. He owned no real estate but his widow obtained a tract of 200 acres from the proprietor of the Northern Neck, 19 Aug., 1760 on the lives of herself (Lettice Massey) and children, Robert and Mary Massey. From the inventory of the estate of John Maysey and the fact that he did not live on the land in Prince William county, he must have been a country shop keeper as he had some livestock. That he was a tailor might be indicated by 27 yards of cloth, a shoemaker as he had a set of tools, or a cabinet-maker as he had carpenter tools and 2,000 ten penny nails. The carpenter trade has come down through his descendants to great-great grandsons. A common Prayer Book in his effects might indicate membership in the Church of England in Truro Parish.

Of the children of John Maysey, little is known about two of them. Ann probably was the Betsey who died unmarried in Anderson Co., Tenn., evidently having accompanied her sister to that place. Charles is known only by a reference stating that he went to Hamilton Co., Tenn., after having resided in the vicinity of his brother and sisters in Tenn. as did some of the Tunnells. Armstrong's book states he was in the Mexican War but he would have been too old for service. A Charles Macey (Masey, Macy) was mustered into the service of the US at Harrison (now Hamilton county), Tenn., in Co. H. 4th Regt. Tenn. Vol. Inf. i 1847 and Charles P. Macey (Masey, Massey, Maysey) aged 20, no doubt his son, was on the same day mustered into Co. A. of the same regiment. Charles died in the General Hospital at Jalapa, Mexico, 11 Jan. and Charles P. at the same place 20 Feb. 1848. Mary, who mar. William Tunnell in Fairfax Co., in 1771, is considered for several generations of descendants in Armstrong's book already referred to. Robert had children: John, Charles, Jehu, William, Gamaliel, Nancy, Robert and Samuel. His wife was named Mary. He served in Capt. Andrew Russell's Co., in the 5th Va. Regt. during the Rev., the Orderly Book listing him as Robert Macy. According to tradition, the Macy ancestor served in that War. The orderly book was picked up on the batterfield at Newark, N. J. by a Connecticut soldier and was carried home, being made known to Virginia history in 1894 by his descendant, the gracious lady who had possession of it at that time.

The Tunnells were in Anderson Co. Tenn. and Robert Macey was listed there in the tax records for 1802. He sold 200 acres of land in 1807. William Tunnell, Sr., turned in 200 acres of taxable land for Charles Massey. Robert sold a town lot in 1810 with James Tunnell and Charles Macey as witnesses. Robert Masey moved to Breckenridge Co., Ky., in time to be listed in the 1810 census. He and his wife were born before 1765. He died before Nov. 1811, when his estate was inventoried. His son William, born in Virginia about 1789 (aged 61 in 1850 census in Breckenridge Co., Ky.) He mar. Mary Huff and served in Capt. William Walker's Co., 3rd Regt. Ky. Mil. in the War of 1812. His children included: Robert, Charles, Dan, Elihu, Jesse, William, Joshua, Nancy, Lydia, Mary and Winnie Ann. Other children of Robert Macy included John who mar. Sarah Barger in 1814 in Breckenridge county. He was born in East Tenn. and died in Putnam Co., Ind., in 1824. His children were Mary Ann, William, Christina Jane, James, Phoeba and John.

Robert Macy, Jr., married Frances Dowell and died in Putnam Co., leaving only one known son, Littleberry, who lived in Kentucky.

Gamaliel Macy mar. Ann Meadows and had William M., Lucinda and Nancy Jane. He lived in Monroe and Putnam counties in Ind. and Edgar Co., Ill.

Samuel Macy mar. Margaret Shields in Putnam county and rem. to Edgar county. His children were: John, Robert and Charles.

Nancy Macy mar. Jubal Meadows and lived in Lawrence and Putnam counties, Ind. and Edgar county, Ill. Their children were James, John, William, Calvin, Mary Anneliza, Lucinda, Elizabeth and Sarilda.

Jehu Macy lived in Jasper county, Ill. and, if married, had no children.

John Macy lived in Lawrence county, Ind. before moving to Putnam county.

William Macy was the only son who remained in Kentucky.

Robert Macy's son, Littleberry, was taken back to Ky. by his mother, where he lived and died in Breckenridge county.

The spellings of the name among the descendants of John Maysey and that of other writing the name give these variations in official records of Fairfax Co., Va., Anderson Co., Tenn., Breckenridge Co., Ky., and Putnam Co., Ind.: Maysey, Macy, Macey, Masey, Masy, Massey, Macesy, Masa, Maysay, Maysy, Maycy Marcy, Maycey.

FAMILY SHEETS

The individual FAMILY SHEETS which follow are in sequence, with the oldest family, the earliest family, on which enough information existed to prepare a FAMILY SHEET, having the first sheet in the file, Children of the first Family Sheet will follow in sequence following the first sheet, etc.

The original FAMILY SHEETS are maintained by J. Marcus Whitler, General Delivery, Glen Dean, Kentucky 40141. Please write to Mr. Whitler if you know of corrections, additions or deletions that should be made to existing sheets, or if you want a family listed that is not now listed.

The narrative account of the FAMILY cannot be kept current but the FAMILY SHEETS can, providing everyone is cooperative and submits FAMILY data to Mr. Whitler,

Mr. Whitler would also appreciate receiving FAMILY information such as birth and death notices, achievement stories, copies of Bible Records, marriages, or even unknown FAMILY Genealogies.

FAMILY

OF

ROBERT F MACY SR.

1749 CA 1811

The individual FAMILY SHEETS which follow are in sequence, with the oldest family, the earliest family, on which enough information existed to prepare a FAMILY SHEET, having the first sheet in the file, Children of the first Family Sheet will follow in sequence following the first sheet, etc.

The original FAMILY SHEETS are maintained by J. Marcus Whitler, General Delivery, Glen Dean, Kentucky 40141. Please write to Mr. Whitler if you know of corrections, additions or deletions that should be made to existing sheets, or if you want a family listed that is not now listed.

The narrative account of the FAMILY cannot be kept current but the FAMILY SHEETS can, providing everyone is cooperative and submits FAMILY data to Mr. Whitler.

Mr. Whitler would also appreciate receiving FAMILY information such as birth and death notices, achievement stories, copies of Bible Records, marriages, or even unknown FAMILY Genealogies.

OF

CHARLES MACY

1831 — 1876

The individual FAMILY SHEETS which follow are in sequence, with the oldest family, the earliest family, on which enough information existed to prepare a FAMILY SHEET, having the first sheet in the file. Children of the first Family Sheet will follow in sequence following the first sheet, etc.

The original FAMILY SHEETS are maintained by J. Marcus Whitler, General Delivery, Glen Dean, Kentucky 40141. Please write to Mr. Whitler if you know of corrections, additions or deletions that should be made to existing sheets, or if you want a family listed that is not now listed.

The narrative account of the FAMILY cannot be kept current but the FAMILY SHEETS can, providing everyone is cooperative and submits FAMILY data to Mr. Whitler.

Mr. Whitler would also appreciate receiving FAMILY information such as birth and death notices, achievement stories, copies of Bible Records, marriages, or even unknown FAMILY Genealogies.

1820-1866

The individual FAMILY SHEETS which follow are in sequence, with the oldest family, the earliest family, on which enough information existed to prepare a FAMILY SHEET, having the first sheet in the file. Children of the first Family Sheet will follow in sequence following the first sheet, etc.

The original FAMILY SHEETS are maintained by J. Marcus Whitler, General Delivery, Glen Dean, Kentucky 40141. Please write to Mr. Whitler if you know of corrections, additions or deletions that should be made to existing sheets, or if you want a family listed that is not now listed.

The narrative account of the FAMILY cannot be kept current but the FAMILY SHEETS can, providing everyone is cooperative and submits FAMILY data to Mr. Whitler.

Mr. Whitler would also appreciate receiving FAMILY information such as birth and death notices, achievement stories, copies of Bible Records, marriages, or even unknown FAMILY Genealogies.

FAMILY
VIRGINIA MYRTLE NASH
1906-

The individual FAMILY SHEETS which follow are in sequence, with the oldest family, the earliest family, on which enough information existed to prepare a FAMILY SHEET, having the first sheet in the file. Children of the first Family Sheet will follow in sequence following the first sheet, etc.

The original FAMILY SHEETS are maintained by J. Marcus Whitler, General Delivery, Glen Dean, Kentucky 40141. Please write to Mr. Whitler if you know of corrections, additions or deletions that should be made to existing sheets, or if you want a family listed that is not now listed.

The narrative account of the FAMILY cannot be kept current but the FAMILY SHEETS can, providing everyone is cooperative and submits FAMILY data to Mr. Whitler.

Mr. Whitler would also appreciate receiving FAMILY information such as birth and death notices, achievement stories, copies of Bible Records, marriages, or even unknown FAMILY Genealogies.

DANIEL MACY
1827-1858

The individual FAMILY SHEETS which follow are in sequence, with the oldest family, the earliest family, on which enough information existed to prepare a FAMILY SHEET, having the first sheet in the file. Children of the first Family Sheet will follow in sequence following the first sheet, etc.

The original FAMILY SHEETS are maintained by J. Marcus Whitler, General Delivery, Glen Dean, Kentucky 40141. Please write to Mr. Whitler if you know of corrections, additions or deletions that should be made to existing sheets, or if you want a family listed that is not now listed.

The narrative account of the FAMILY cannot be kept current but the FAMILY SHEETS can, providing everyone is cooperative and submits FAMILY data to Mr. Whitler.

Mr. Whitler would also appreciate receiving FAMILY information such as birth and death notices, achievement stories, copies of Bible Records, marriages, or even unknown FAMILY Genealogies.

JOE B. MACY, 80, 4204 Cutliff Drive, Louisville, died Friday, July 9 at Suburban Hospital, Louisville.

A native of Breckinridge County, he was a son of the late Bejamin and Sally Haynes Macy.

Mr. Macy operated a general merchandise store in Garfield for several years before moving to Louisville, where he owned and operated a truck farm for 45 years. He retired in 1965.

Mr. Macy is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lillian Bell Macy; his sister, Mrs. Mollie Roberts of Lewisport; several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were conducted Monday, July 12 from Ratterman's Funeral Home, Louisville. The Rev. J. Craig Martindale, pastor of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Louisville, officiated. Burial was in Louisville Memorial Gardens West.

ELIHU MACY
1815-1870

The individual FAMILY SHEETS which follow are in sequence, with the oldest family, the earliest family, on which enough information existed to prepare a FAMILY SHEET, having the first sheet in the file. Children of the first Family Sheet will follow in sequence following the first sheet, etc.

The original FAMILY SHEETS are maintained by J. Marcus Whitler, General Delivery, Glen Dean, Kentucky 40141. Please write to Mr. Whitler if you know of corrections, additions or deletions that should be made to existing sheets, or if you want a family listed that is not now listed.

The narrative account of the FAMILY cannot be kept current but the FAMILY SHEETS can, providing everyone is cooperative and submits FAMILY data to Mr. Whitler.

Mr. Whitler would also appreciate receiving FAMILY information such as birth and death notices, achievement stories, copies of Bible Records, marriages, or even unknown FAMILY Genealogies.

OF

1850-

The individual FAMILY SHEETS which follow are in sequence, with the oldest family, the earliest family, on which enough information existed to prepare a FAMILY SHEET, having the first sheet in the file. Children of the first Family Sheet will follow in sequence following the first sheet, etc.

The original FAMILY SHEETS are maintained by J. Marcus Whitler, General Delivery, Glen Dean, Kentucky 40141. Please write to Mr. Whitler if you know of corrections, additions or deletions that should be made to existing sheets, or if you want a family listed that is not now listed.

The narrative account of the FAMILY cannot be kept current but the FAMILY SHEETS can, providing everyone is cooperative and submits FAMILY data to Mr. Whitler.

Mr. Whitler would also appreciate receiving FAMILY information such as birth and death notices, achievement stories, copies of Bible Records, marriages, or even unknown FAMILY Genealogies.

Ralph Macy Buys Plains Hotel At Cheyenne

Brick Herald News, Hardinsburg, Ky. -1975-

Hardinsburg native Ralph Macy has purchased the historic Plains Hotel at Cheyenne, Wyo. for a reported $850,000, according to a July 2 article appearing in a Cheyenne newspaper. Macy, who has been manager of the hotel for the past four years, purchased the hotel from Emmett Thurmon of Kerrville, Tex.

Thurmon said he decided to sell the hotel after being advised by his physician to return to a lower altitude. He said he had chosen to because the latter had "managed it successfully and I am satisfied he will continue to do that."

Macy said he bought the Plains "because I think it has possibilities of being a good hotel and also helping the Cheyenne economy."

Macy said his wife, Julie, has also joined with him in management responsibilities at the hotel and will continue to do so.

The son of the late Mr. and burg. Macy has lived in Cheyenne for the past 32 years, for much of that time working in the motor vehicle parts business.
